DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE, SARA OROZCO, LAUNCHES 1:12:1 FRAMEWORK

First community meeting to focus on health care

WHAT: Democratic state senate candidate, Sara Orozco, invites the public to a community meeting on health care as she launches her 1:12:1 framework. Orozco, a psychologist, will lead this discussion with physician, Peter Smulowitz, MD, of Needham. Orozco is the sole Democrat running against Republican incumbent, Scott Brown, for the Norfolk, Bristol and Middlesex Senate District.

WHY: Sara Orozco seeks to unite the 12 diverse communities within the senate district in open exchanges around the most important issue of the day to share ideas, concerns and to shape the decisions that will distinguish her style of leadership, when elected in November. One issue: Twelve communities: One vote

WHERE: Avery Crossing, 110 West Street – Needham, MA
