Sara Orozco, Democrat

I hoped to have several debates with my opponent, Scott Brown, to let voters consider us, side-by-side. But, to date, he has declined debates in Needham and Sherborn. Unless that changes, we will face-off only once, on October 29, at a Sun Chronicle forum in Attleboro.

I'm disappointed, but I haven't given up on reaching every voter I can.

That's why I created the "virtual door-knock." Please visit www.SaraOrozco.com and click on the door-knock link to watch video. Then pass it along! I am committed to meeting as many voters as I can to introduce myself and let them know about my character and my priorities.

Please visit my Web site and tell me what is most important to you. I will continue to pound the pavement until Election Day, but I don't want to miss your door. So please answer the knock at www.SaraOrozco.com and let me earn your vote.
