Send this problem solver to Massachusetts Senate

To the editor:

During this election season, it is easy to get distracted by the national elections and overlook what is happening in our own backyard. We have several important political races to consider, not the least of which is the race between Scott Brown and Sara Orozco for State Senate.

If you are looking for a true advocate on Beacon Hill please consider Sara's candidacy. She is a successful business person and a gifted clinician who knows how to listen and solve problems. Sara understands the challenges facing our communities and has mastered the art of working with others to create winning solutions. We need more problem-solvers at the Statehouse. Our Senate district needs a place at the table. Sara can build and sustain the relationships necessary so that our concerns can be heard. Change is a good thing and the time for it is now. Check out Sara's website at www.saraorozco.com. On Nov. 4, vote Sara Orozco, Democrat for state Senate.
